

Annotated Webliography of Learning Sites

1) Proquest Databases (all)

URL is <http://www.proquestk12.com>

Login: RDELREY

Password: chulavista

Databases contain carefully selected resources to support student learning. Most databases are subscription based. Our district subscribes to three: eLibrary, Culturegrams and SIRS. All three are accessible from the same home page. These databases provide you with access to articles, country reports, current events, and multimedia resources.

2) Ipl2: Internet Public Library (all)

URL is: <http://www.ipl.org/>

This is an example of a virtual library. A virtual library is a directory with resources that information specialists such as librarians have organized. The information has been carefully selected and chosen.

3) Library Spot (all)

URL is: <http://libraryspot.com/>

This is a really cool virtual library. It is a one-stop site for electronic resources of all formats and types. You can find encyclopedias, current events, maps, and links to public and private libraries.

4) Finding Dulcinea (all)

URL is: <http://www.findingdulcinea.com/>

Virtual library managed by librarians. Some of the cool features you can expect to find are web guides to a wide number of topics, a section on "on this day in history," top stories and much, much more. This site is also available in Spanish.

5) Nova Online (science, computers)

URL is: <http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/nova/>

This database is simply too cool. It is for both teachers and students alike. You can find information on life science, space engineering, evolution, physics and much more. Make sure to check-out their awesome videos. They are out of this world.

6) The Futures Channel (All disciplines)

URL is: <http://www.thefutureschannel.com/about.php>

The Futures Channel was founded to provide high quality real world digital content to enhance learning experiences for students. You will find videos for nearly all disciplines and areas of interest. Best of all, it's entirely free!

7) Visuwords (English)

URL is: <http://www.visuwords.com/>

This is the perfect online dictionary for the visual learners. The site looks up words to find meaning and associates them with other words and concepts. It's a great way to review the parts of speech!

8) How to Study (all)

URL: <http://howtostudy.org/>

Learn to practice skills to help you study and earn better grades. You will find helpful information to improve your academic performance in all areas of study.

9) Mathway (math)

URL: <http://www.mathway.com/>

You will find the tools you need to solve any math problem. This is a wonderful resource for students, parents and teachers.

10) Math Help for Parents and their Kids

URL: <http://www.mathatube.com/>

Look for any math topic you are having difficulty with and the engine will locate a video short video clips. The videos are either teacher or student made. It's a fun way to learn.

11) Style Guides and Resources on the Internet

URL: <http://archive.ifla.org/l/training/citation/citing.htm>

This site provides a good number of tutorial experiences to practice documentation and citation writing.

12) Skillswise: English & Math

URL: <http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise/english>

Practice your writing skills with a variety of tools and resources. This includes video tutorials, exercises, guided practice and quizzes.

13) Studystack (all)

URL: <http://www.studystack.com/>

This is a really cool site with flashcards for many subjects. They even have flashcards for miscellaneous items such as food and sports.

14) SchoolHouse Tutorial Web Version (English)

URL:

http://www.greatsource.com/iwrite/tutorials/microsoft\_learning\_essentials/SCHOOL~5.HTM

This is a wonderful tutorial site that guides students in the persuasive essay writing process.

15) Filamentality (all)

URL: <http://www.kn.att.com/wired/fil/index.html>

The site works as a directory. When doing a search you will be matched with educational projects that explore your topic in greater detail.

16) Smithsonian (all)

URL: <http://www.si.edu/encyclopedia>

Super cool site managed by one of the finest museum institutions in the world.

17) Encyclopedia of Life (all)

URL: <http://www.si.edu/encyclopedia>

Its objective is to provide knowledge and information about all life forms. You can expect to find images, video, articles and plenty of other good resources.

18) Dave's ESL Café (English)

URL: <http://www.si.edu/encyclopedia>

Though this site is designed for students who are learning English for the first time, there are plenty of grammatical exercises that can benefit all students.

19) Search Engine Watch

URL: <http://searchenginewatch.com/article/2049177/Search-Engine-Tutorials>

Plenty of tutorials on how to do successful online searches.

20) Student Guides

URL: <http://projects.edtech.sandi.net/staffdev/tpss99/processguides/index.htm>

Great tutorials on the skills you should have when gathering electronic information.